

TAILS AND TALEs

For Babies

25 daily activities

1

Point out the shapes that make up letters

2

Re-read a book your baby likes

3

Babble and make silly sounds

4

Blow bubbles with your baby

5

Substitute your baby's name in Mary Had a Little Lamb

6

Let your baby choose between 2 books to read

7

Put yogurt or pudding in a ziploc bag and let them play with it

8

Talk your baby through the stages of washing their hands

9

Put socks on you and your babies hands and tell a funny story

10

Check out a music CD from the library to listen and sing together

11

Read a funny poem together

12

Sing Twinkle Twinkle Little Star

13

Go outside and pretend to be rabbits

14

Tell your baby about the town they live in 15

Read as many words as you can while shopping in the grocery store

16

Play a hand-game like Patty Cake

17

Check out a book of nursery rhymes

18

Clap the syllables in your babies name

19

Tell your baby about the parts of a book (author, book cover, etc.)

20

Do a finger play like Itsy Bitsy Spider

21

Let your child bang on a pot

22

Sing while you change your baby's diaper

23

Use a puppet to play with your child

24

Take a walk and look for animals

25

Check out a book that has a lot of shapes